Rise and Shine

Anguilla's Cap Juluca, the quintessential Caribbean resort, has been reenvisioned for 2014 with the return of its original owners, Charles and Linda Hickox. Crisp whites and bold art and accent pieces bring a fresh look to the 69 oceanside guest rooms, while on the dining scene, new waterfront bar and restaurant Spice is the hot spot for tapas and a cocktail, pan-roasted scallops and chops, or dancing to the house band. The jewel of Juluca's crown: its new Jonquil Suite, a two-bedroom villa dressed in shag rugs with a private pool, dining terrace, and kitchen.

Virtuoso Life's Korena Bolding Sinnett recently popped in and reports that the resort is striking, but it's the staff that won her over (turn the page for an interview with a favorite). Her advice: "Take a paddleboard out for an unforgettable view of Maundays Beach and Cap Juluca's Greco-Moorish architecture – just make sure you're back in time for the complimentary homemade coconut sorbet, served daily around 3 PM." Doubles from $595, including breakfast daily and a $100 resort credit.

Daydream with a view: From here, gaze across your private terrace to the beach just steps beyond.

The sporting life: From paddleboarding to the pitch, Cardy's got you covered.

GAME ON

After 15 years as a professional cricket star in England, Cardigan Connor, 52, returned to his native Anguilla, where he bats for Cap Juluca as its activities director and guest relations manager – basically your go-to guy for fun at the resort. Here, “Cardy” gives us his hits.

WHEN FRIENDS VISIT ANGUILLA, I TAKE THEM: “On a boat tour of Sandy Island and Little Bay.”

THE TOP SPOT FOR SNORKELING: “The reefs at Shoal Bay East.”

BEST MONTH ON THE ISLAND: “August, for Carnival and its traditional sailboat races.”

YOUR IDEAL AFTERNOON OFF: “Being a winning crew member of Light & Peace, a class-A Anguillan sailboat.”

DISH YOU MISS MOST WHEN ABROAD: “Local roasted pot fish.”

HONEYMOONER DO: “Have lunch on gorgeous Scilly Cay.”

... AND DON'TS: “Fall asleep in the sun; swim at Captain’s Bay – strong currents.”

FAVORITE SPORTS ACTIVITIES AT THE RESORT: “Beach fitness and hitting golf balls on the aqua driving range.”

ANGUILLA VS. SAINT BART’S: “Anguilla is for learned travelers seeking privacy and gorgeous sandy beaches; those needing to be seen go to Saint Bart’s. Think of it as England vs. France – but friendly, of course.”
